

Dear Hatteras Island Rental Property Owner,

While you probably know what a unique cultural treasure Chicamacomico Historic Site and Museum is to Hatteras Island, it may be that your guests are not as knowledgeable. They might not know that it's the most complete life-saving station complex surviving in the United States, and is one of the few places in the world that still regularly conducts Beach Apparatus Drills with a special team of local volunteers. Chicamacomico is listed on the National Registry of Historic Places and is truly a Hatteras Island jewel that gets rave reviews from visitors.

In August 2018 and throughout the year, Chicamacomico Station in Rodanthe will commemorate the centennial of the perilous and heroic World War I rescue of forty-two sailors from the torpedoed British tanker Mirlo by a surfboat from Chicamacomico Coast Guard Station. The Chicamacomico site and the Mirlo Rescue Centennial will be nationally recognized as a unique part of our World War I history, when U-boats and the war literally came to our American shore! Cap'n John Allen Midgett and five crew members of Chicamacomico each received gold medals from both the US and the British government, the highest in Coast Guard history.

For the first time ever, Chicamacomico Historical Association is offering a special amenity to Rental Property Owners by which they can offer to their guests free access to the site (normally an $8 admission). For a one time fee of $350 ALL of your guests in 2018 will be able to visit and tour Chicamacomico Historic Site and Museum to learn more of the special maritime history and culture of Hatteras Island. Not only will you be giving your guests a very unique amenity, but you will also be helping the Chicamacomico Historical Association, a 501(c)(3) non-profit, to maintain and restore the facility. To obtain this pass a fee of $350 should be remitted directly to us using the instruction at the end of this letter.

Thank you for your support and we know that your guests will also thank you for this special opportunity.

Cordially,

John T. Griffin, President
Chicamacomico Historical Association
